Class Poem

SARA HASTINGS

We've passed the tests old R. H. S. and now point back with pride To four long years of groans and cheers, ere we weathered the tide.

*We turn our backs, but not our hearts; sadly we say adieu
And though we smile it's only style, in memory we'll turn to you.*

*From arithmetic up to old "trig" we've studied to keep pace
Then there's the anguish of our English—languages gave us a chase.*

*Home Ec. we had, it wasn't so bad and neither was our spelling,
In typing and shorthand, so we understand, we were always
"Bello"ing.*

Other studies were our constant buddies and sometimes the midnight toil

*Though we pulled thru, I'm telling you it wasn't play at all.
We'd tear our hair and in despair believe the end surely near,
But we stuck through all bad luck until graduation day is here.*

*In every sport, on every court; against odds great but fair
We played the game just the same and kept our reputation square.*

Football, baseball, basket-ball and clear thru to Spring and track

With coaches who said we had rather be dead than ask lost victory back.

*Dear faculty we owe to thee all that the future to us may yield,
You did your work without a shirk, you ruled with determination steeled.*

We open our doors, best wishes are yours; God grant that you carry on

The good you've done us everyone. We'll watch long after we've gone.

Glass Song

TUNE: "Let's All Get Together"

I

Now school is over, exams are thru,
And we are leaving you,
We've had happy memories,
But we must say adieu.

Chorus

Goodbye to juniors,
We're sorry to leave you,
We hope that you'll be happy thru next year.
We have been together thru all these years and we've learned to love you true.
You have backed us and helped us in all that we have done,
So goodbye to juniors we're sorry to leave you, we're going to miss you every one.

TUNE: "The End of a Perfect Day"

DOROTHY NEWELL

I

Now, we've come to the end of our dear school year,
And we think of the things that have passed
And the tho'ts of these cause us bitter tears
For time goes by so fast.
Do you think what the end of our dear school days
Will mean to you and me
When we go out into the world to make
Our lives just what they'll be.

II

To the faculty we say goodbye
You have helped us in every way
You've made us stay in, you've made us sigh,
But there's one thing we wish to say
Forgive us for all we've ever done
Then we can say goodbye
For we love you and only did it in fun
We'll remember you till we die.

III

In R. H. S. we've had our time
Both good times, and bad times we've faced
And we leave you saying these few lines
Upon which our thoughts are based
It is now time for us to say adieu
And it makes us all feel blue
But this is a time we all must face
Now we say goodbye to you.

George "Mike" Barber—his middle name was given to him as a present for it fits in so well. "Mike" is everything that his first name might suggest, George Washington the second, he was never one to tell a lie. But that does not keep him from being mischievous or a good athlete. Girls are to "Mike" as castor oil is to babies.

Eugene, better known to his classmates as "Icky" is one of our favorites. "Icky" is always ready and wide awake with his witty remarks. He never fails to prepare his lessons and is ready to help everyone. Without "Icky" what would we do?

*"As we travel life's journey
Let us live by the way."*

MELVIN E. DOBBS

"Steady and staunch we stand."

Athletic Association (4); Football Squad (4); Journalistic Club (4); Literary Society (4); Voted Best Dressed Boy.

Melvin has been with our class for the past two years and has proved a good student. We have great expectations of Melvin, whom we hope will be successful in his future life as a dentist.

Ruth is one of our most friendly girls, she always has a smile on her face and a word of cheer for everyone. She has won a host of friends in R. H. S. and is very fond of shopping in the "Piggly Wiggly." We wish her happiness throughout her life.

KATE SNOW SMITH

"She that bring sunshine into the lives of others cannot keep it from herself."

Journalistic Club (4); Dramatic Club (4); French Club (4).

Even though Kate came to us in our senior year, we feel as though we have known her longer. Her charming personality and winning smiles have won for her a host of friends in the short time she has been here. When anyone is in trouble, Kate always "Bobs" up and gives a cheering word. Luck to you, Kate.

JACOB SCHULMAN

"It is better to have a small outlet to a large brain than a large outlet to a small brain."

Athletic Association (3, 4); Treasurer Dramatic Club (4); School News Reporter of Journalistic Club (4); Class Football (3, 4); Dramatic Club (4); Journalistic Club (4); Literary Society (4); Voted Biggest Grumbler, Noisiest.

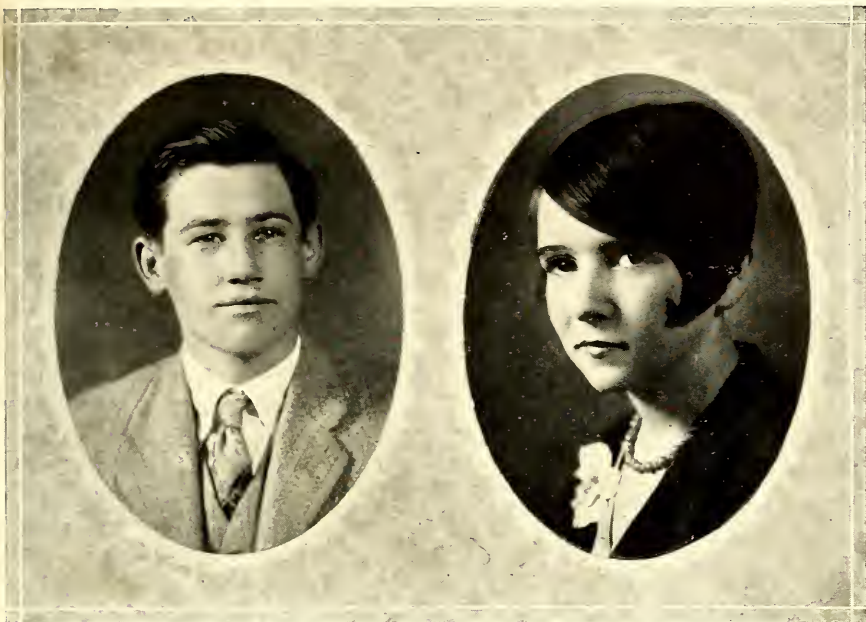

Although Jacob didn't start with us we feel as though we have had him with us throughout our entire school years. Without Jacob's witty remarks we would perhaps napping in history class.

ROBERT SPENCER WAYNICK

"Those who generously work toward the happiness of others will sooner or later arrive at happiness themselves."

Captain Class Basket-ball (2); President Athletic Association (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Basket-ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Football (1, 2, 3); Class Track (1, 2, 3); Field Day (2, 3); Class Baseball (1, 2, 3); Journalistic Club (4); Dramatic Club (4); Captain Class Track (3); Varsity Football (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain Varsity Football (4); Voted Best Looking Boy.

"Captain Waynick" is just the type all of the girls fall for; handsome, good personality and athletic. He has more girls on his string than any boy in school, but this has affected in no way his good disposition. We wonder what our football team would have been without Spencer.

JOHN C. WEAVER

*"Let Hercules do what he may,
But the cat will mew and the dog
will have his day."*

President of Class (4); Treasurer of Class (3); Business Manager RENOCAHI —Athletic Association (3, 4); Varsity Football (3, 4); Class Football (3, 4); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Class Baseball (4); Monogram Club (4); Dramatic Club (4); Journalistic Club (4); Field Day (4); Literary Society (4); Voted Most Original.

Although John entered our class in the Junior year, we have learned to like him very much. His witty remarks and willingness to help others will be missed by everyone. He has made the class an exceptionally good president and we are expecting great things of him.

SARA IRVIN WHITSETTE

"Where singleness is bliss 'tis folly to be wives."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); President (4); Varsity Basket-ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Basket-ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain (2); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Journalistic Club (3, 4); Athletic Reporter (4); Literary Society (4); RENOCAHI Staff (4); Class Secretary (1); French Club (3, 4); Field Day Monitor (3, 4); Tennis Team (1); Hiking Club (1); Monogram Club (2, 3, 4); Old Original; Voted Laziest, Most Attractive, Biggest Flapper, Best Dressed, Most Stylish.

Sara has a very sunny disposition and never worries about anything except which one of her numerous suitors is "the" one, but she has found it best to love them all and no one in particular.

As to what Sara intends to do in the future we do not know, but whatever it is we are sure it will be worth while and that she will meet with success.

SUZANNE WHITSETTE

"Sunshine of Paradise Alley."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Hiking Club (1, 2); Class President (2); Treasurer French Club (3); Field Day (1, 2, 4); Field Day Monitor (3); Class Basket-ball (1, 2, 4); Basket-ball Squad (4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Vice-President of Dramatic Club (4); French Club (3, 4); Journalistic Club (4).

Suzanne, just "Suz" to her friends, has won such a place in the hearts of her classmates that she is regarded as indispensable.

One of her favorite pastimes is reading, and if asked to give the name of her favorite book it probably would be "Just David."

CORNIE IRENE WILLIAMS

*"She is not a 'Comedy of Errors,'
Nor a 'Midsummer Night's Dream,'
But take it 'As You Like It,'
She is just what she seems."*

Literary Society (4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); French Club (3, 4); Hiking Club (1, 2); Attendance Honor Roll (1, 2, 3).

Cornie has many friends, and she is always ready to help them whenever she can. She has a very cheery disposition, and if you want to laugh, just listen to her witty remarks. She is full of fun and is a good student—even if she does not like Geometry.

We are sure that Cornie will make a great success in life.

Salutatory

FRANCES CARTER

RIENDS and citizens of Reidsville tonight brings us to a position of sadness mingled with joy. We are sad because we are leaving this old building which has been our home for the past four years. We are happy because this is a great occasion for us, a day which may be called "a red letter day." We are glad to welcome you, citizens of Reidsville, to see us receive our first laurels.

We extend to the members of our school board a cordial welcome here tonight and we wish to express in a small way our appreciation of the loyal support you have always given us.

To our superintendent, principal and faculty members I must say we owe you a debt of gratitude which we cannot repay. Thus we welcome you here tonight because the occasion would not be complete without your presence and your loyal support.

As it is impossible to express our love and appreciation to our parents at this time we extend to you a most hearty welcome.

To every one we extend a cordial welcome and we fully trust this will be an occasion of joy to you.

Class History

ANNA LOVE OLIVER

N the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen when our country was in the midst of the most horrible war in all history, a group of merry, carefree children between the ages of six and seven, booked their passages for an eleven year voyage on the good ship "School Days."

Six years of the trip passed tranquilly with a loss of only a few passengers, but with the seventh year we met with many difficulties. (Maybe I should have added that this voyage was not one merely of pleasure. We worked hard with only a few hours of leisure each day).

Instead of being appointed new quarters on our own ship, as had been the custom, we were placed in a new vessel, "High School Days," among many strange faces.

This ship had just been completed the previous summer and we felt honored indeed to be the first to enter. Thus we began our seventh year.

Instead of one captain who watched over us we had several who were cruel and stern and sometimes went so far as to beat us with heavy sticks when we did not obey.

We soon learned, however, that we were to be rewarded, for in our leisure hours we were allowed to romp and play on deck. During that year our girls made themselves famous by winning the Junior High School Basket-ball championship. As a trophy they were promised a blue banner which was to have waved proudly in their stateroom.

The eighth and ninth years passed by, full of fun and excitement and by the tenth year we navigators thought we knew just about everything there was to know about sailing but we soon found we were sadly mistaken. We were the so-called Juniors, horribly mistreated and over-run by the proud, haughty and conceited Seniors. For twelve months we took bravely their "knocks" and impertinence and then we proudly bade them farewell and took their places. We were very considerate of the lower classmen and exercised our Senior privileges (?) very prudently, also we have been commended frequently on our wonderful conduct and attitude, by our captains, pilot and mates.

And now as we come to the end of our voyage and the time has come to bid farewell to all who are connected with the beloved ship "High School Days" we realize that we have not seen all of life's splendor and wonders, that we are merely on the threshold of life with our lives in our own hands, and as the old saying goes we are "Launched but not Anchored."

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Senior Class of '28 to be their last will and testament, in our presence and we, in their presence and in the presence of each other, have at their request set our names hereunto as witnesses.

Class Prophecy

NEAL PALMER

THE time is drawing near when we, the Seniors of R. H. S. shall be Seniors no longer, but we all shall leave this institution that has sheltered and protected us for four happy years. In commemoration of our school days, we have come together, at this time, around the campfire, to share our last happy hours together.

Becoming weary from the strenuous work of the day, most of the members leave the campfire and turn in for the night. I, being in a melancholy mood, remain by the glowing embers of the campfire.

As I sit thus, buried in thought, three strange looking figures appear out of the darkness, desiring to tell fortunes.

A sudden idea strikes me, "I will learn from these strange people the destinies of everyone present at this camp ground."

They bring forth a large pot and set it on the fire. Presently steam arises from the pot, and I am allowed to peep into the future:

Hugh Anderson is president of Reidsville's new million dollar Y. M. C. A.

Gordon Gentry is a famous physician, and Kate Smith is employed by him as a nurse. Claude Mobley has won fame as a veterinary surgeon.

Alec Montgomery has charge of the extensive stock of Belk-Stevens Co. D. Pender's store also boasts of a new manager in the person of no other than Carroll Garrison.

Frances Carter, Annie Coleman, Ruth Sartin, Winona Huteherson and Wilma Carroll have organized an Old Maids Club, with Annie Coleman as chairman. This club is a wonderful success, and, has already saved many from the ravages of matrimony.

Lillian Durham has surprised us by eloping with a young man from Florida.

Anna Love Oliver has recently opened a home for stray cats. Homeless cats are given a hearty welcome into this worthy organization. The milk for the animals is furnished by an adjoining dairy, operated by Frances Garrison.

Jacob Schulman is proprietor of Reidsville's one and only pawn shop, located on Scales St.

Mable Burton, our capable editor, is now editor-in-chief of the "Pelham Events." She has in her service Sara Hastings and Rebecca Glass as stenographers.

It is rather interesting to note that Robert Morphis has become a great artist. At present, he is traveling abroad in order to complete his study.

Buck Duggins, a graduate from Carolina, is coaching football at R. H. S.

Ralph Cummings, the brains of the senior class, has gone north and joined the "Mounted Police."

Vivian Ellington, the distinguished actress, has returned from the stage and has taken up teaching at Monroeton.

Philip Ballard has resigned as a clerk in the A. M. A. store and has started a business of his own, with Edna Johnston to help him manage it.

Clarence Jones is a foreman, employed by the American Tobacco Company.

Sara Whitsett, who always considered the "Minor" things, has decided to become a "Minor" for once and all. She is now the beloved and adored helpmate of Roy Lee "Skinny" Minor, an old student of R. H. S.

Robert Richardson is coaching at Carolina.

Sam Lemons, a nonchalant, sophisticated, blasé gentleman strolls down Fifth Avenue into Texas Guinan's place, where he spends two bits like so much water. After downing his whiskey and soda like a gentleman, he reluctantly admits that he is Lemons, the butter and egg man from Reidsville, who has come to New York on a visit.

Vance Partlow, under the leadership of Mr. Bello, has become the world's greatest and fastest typist. He is known the world over as "The Speed Demon."

Jemie Satterfield is famous for her course in aesthetic dancing. Many sufferers from excessive avoirdupois have found relief by taking this course.

George Barber "capped" the trophy on a cross country run from Seattle to Miami.

Melvin Dobbs is a motion picture director. At present he is directing Winnie in her latest masterpiece. Winnie has won much fame as a motion picture actress.

Peeping into a cozy cottage, we see a busy housewife sweeping and dusting. She is Mrs. David Somers, who, before marriage, was Miss Suzanne Whitsett.

Eugene Brooks is a stock broker on Wall Street.

John Foy, a man of the world, spends most of his time riding about and calling on the weaker sex.

Newton Hall, the modern Rip Van Winkle, is now a famous baseball player. He is hurling for the New York Giants.

Spencer Waynick owns and operates a truck farm in New Hampshire.

Dorothy Newell, Sallie Sharp and Phoebe Clark are great musicians. Phoebe and Dorothy take care of the vocal part, while Sallie plays the violin. Sallie has won fame with her violin. She has succeeded Fritz Kreisler as a musical director.

John Weaver, our capable class president, is now president of the "Pink Tea Corporation" of Ruffin, N. C. Corrie is serving as a waitress in this shop.

Hunter Oakley has succeeded Mrs. Womack as instructor of music at R. H. S.

Fred Dickerson, who won fame as a college football player, is now a professor of Civil Engineering at V. P. I.

As surprising as all this seems, my astonishment can be imagined when I see myself standing in the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Pumpkin Creek, N. C.

Having accomplished their mission, the creatures remove the pot from the smoldering embers and betake themselves into the dark forest.

Valedictory

RALPH WALDO CUMMINGS

DEAR Friends, Teachers, and Classmates:

We, the class of '28, are assembled here in Reidsville High School for perhaps the last time. It is a sad parting, and yet it is a hopeful one. It is hopeful because we have received training here that will help us face life squarely. But before we pass on to give room for these who follow us, we wish to express our deep appreciation to those who have made this parting such a hopeful one.

We are grateful to our superintendent, principal, and teachers for bringing us through the four years of high school strife, victorious. We trust that in the coming years you will see that your training has "gone home" and that we are doing our part to make the world worth living in.

To our school board we are also thankful. We realize that your planning and work has helped make our school what it is today.

We wish to thank the citizens of Reidsville and Rockingham County who have financed our training course. We realize that without your aid we would not have had this fine building and equipment and these trained teachers. Consequently, we could not have received this training. We also wish to express our deep appreciation to the churches for adding the Bible department to our school. No one can fully realize what it has meant and will mean to us, to our school, and to the world at large.

And last but not least, we express our deepest gratitude to our parents who have made the sacrifice to give us this preparation. We cannot repay you but some day we hope that you will be justly proud of us and proud of what you have done to prepare us.

We extend greetings to the class of '29 which will soon follow in our footsteps. We hope that you will be even more victorious than we.

And, now, after being together here for four years, we are leaving our old training ground: some to higher training grounds; others to the battlefront of life. We all came here for the same purpose. Now let us all go away with higher ideals, fully equipped to cope with the problems of life.
